

Great Falls, MT- It was Senior / Parents day at Seibel Park. The Argonaut Men's Team had just completed a 2-0 shutout of the Westminster College Griffins. The Argo Women were looking to duplicate the men's game. Goal Keeper Dayna Winter-Nolte and the Griffins had an entirely different game plan.

Led by two goals by Corie Walch, one at 69:05 and the other at 87:00 in the contest, the Griffins improved their overall record to 9-6-1 and 4-2 in conference play. The match was scoreless through the first half and a terrific display of defensive prowess by both teams. The second half two unassisted goals were all Westminster needed to put away the Argonauts.

The Argos said "Thank You and Good Bye" to six seniors; Carly Armstrong, Jean Escobar, Amanda Haynes, Jenell Jackson, Yesenia Ocampo, Ashly Pezel and Sam Davies. A few parents of the graduating seniors came to Great Falls to wish their daughters well and to watch them play. There were approximately 130 fans in attendance.

The Argos fall to 4-9-1 overall and 0-4 in conference play while the Griffins improved to 9-6-1 and 4-2 in conference.

Tem Argos will host Carroll College on Wednesday the 26th in a 4:00 pm match at Seibel Park then they are on the road to play Minot State on the 29th and Jamestown College on the 30th. The Argos will close out their 2011 season by hosting Rocky Mountain College on November 2nd at 1:00 pm at Seibel Park.
