

UGF HEAD COACH: STEVE SILSBY

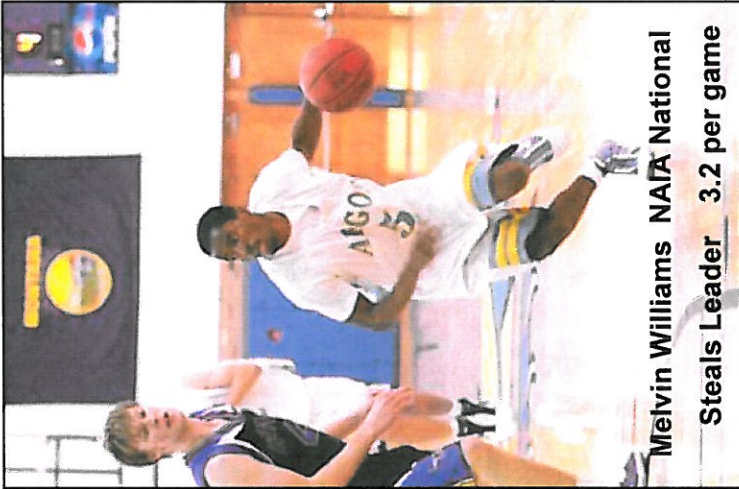

Steve Silsby enters his sixth season as the Head Men's Basketball Coach at the University of Great Falls in 2011. After spending one year as an assistant at UGF, Steve was selected to replace Antonio Veloso after his departure in 2006. Since taking over as head coach, Silsby has mentored several All-Frontier Conference selections including three Honorable Mention NAIA All-Americans. His additional duties include his service as the Head Men's & Women's Golf Coach at UGF.

Steve came to UGF after spending three years at Scottsdale Community College serving as the assistant men's basketball coach and assistant athletic director. He also served two years as the assistant men's basketball coach and intramural director at the University of Arkansas at Fort Smith, where the Lions participated in the NJCAA I National Tournament both years. At Arkansas-Fort Smith, Silsby worked under current University of Nebraska Head Coach Doc Sadler.

Prior to his time in the JUCO ranks, Steve spent five years working for the Arizona State University men's basketball program as a student assistant coach. During his time in Tempe, the Sun Devils advanced to the 1995 NCAA national tournament beating Wagner College and Ball State University before bowing out to Kentucky in the Sweet Sixteen.
