After one season as the team's head coach, Paul Zazenski led the Argos to their first conference championship along with a birth to the 2010 NAIA National Tournament in only the programs fourth year. The Argonauts earned a trip to the NAIA "Sweet 16" after beating #2 ranked Simon Fraser in the round of 32. To cap off the season, the Argonauts were honored with a NAIA All-American, 2 All-Region players, 1 Conference Player of the Year, and 4 All-Conference performers. Zazenski was named Conference and Region Coach of the Year after leading Great Falls to a record of 16-4-1.

As a kid growing up in Atlantic Beach, NC, Zazenski was a member of the state championship Greensboro Soccer Club. He played three years for the North Carolina ODP state team while making the Region III ODP pool and helping the North Carolina team to a runner-up finish in the ODP National Championship.

Zazenski played four years of collegiate soccer at the NCAA Division I level for the University of North Carolina-Greensboro. While at UNC-G, he was a part of the Spartans' back-to-back Sweet Sixteen appearances in the NCAA Tournament. During his junior season, Zazenski helped UNC-G compile an 18 game winning streak and a national ranking of number one for most of the season. Zazenski played along-side three NCAA Division I All-Americans. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise sports and science from UNC-G.

LOCATION & CAMP STAFF

The soccer camp will be held at Siebel Soccer Park which is located adjacent to Malmstrom Air Force Base at the intersection of 57th Street North & 10th Avenue North on the extreme northwestern edge of the city of Great Falls.

The camp is conducted by UGF coaches and will involve UGF players. Campers experience the activities in a relaxed and safe environment. All campers are required to wear shin guards at all times and should bring a water bottle with water and a soccer ball.

IN ADDITION, ALL CAMPER WILL RECEIVE A COMPLIMENTARY UGF SOCCER CAMP T-SHIRT!

PHILOSOPHY

This is a unique opportunity to have a full-time soccer experience. The UGF high school soccer camp will be based on the Brazilian Philosophies and focus on advanced team training with emphasis on the tactical aspects of the game. Possession, penetration, offensive and defensive balance and support, team shape, systems of play and many other important topics will be covered. Yet, as the Brazilian Philosophy dictates, the fundamentals of the sport are also highly emphasized (i.e. dribbling, passing, receiving, finishing, heading, etc.). On top of that, players will be instructed on how to improve their speed, quickness, agility and aggressiveness. This camp will be designed to give players from all parts of Montana the opportunity to play with and against each other in an organized format. In addition, each camper will receive in-depth coaching instruction from a qualified college coach each day.
