Argo Harriers Set School Record

Yakima, WA – The Argo Men’s Cross Country team did not need to be perfect to win, however, they almost were. The University of Great Falls men ran upfront from the gun and never looked back in their 2010 campaign debut.

With ideal conditions, the Argos placed eight individuals in the top ten spots at the Central Washington University Apple Ridge Invitational, accumulating a mere 19 points. The first place victory was only the second ever by the men and would set the school record point total in the face of some worthy competition. In attendance was nationally ranked Division II Western Washington University, as well as Division II Seattle Pacific University and Central Washington University. Several junior colleges also competed including Green River Community College, Olympic College and Skagit Valley College.

Leading the way for the Argos was junior Rigoberto Jimenez (Royal City, WA) who won the meet handily by 27 seconds. In second place was freshman Taylor Guske (Stanwood, WA) who led the race for the first two miles before relinquishing the lead to his teammate.

“Rigoberto and Taylor worked really well together,” said Head Coach Jim Brewer. “Neither one pushed it to the point where they didn’t have any more in the tank.”

Juniors Shane Donaldson (Thompson Falls, MT), Tyler Nilsen (Bothell, WA), and Cullen Cantwell (Marysville, WA) rounded out the top five for the Argos, placing fourth, fifth and seventh, respectively.

“Our men ran really well today. I think they surprised a lot of people and their performance really turned the heads of other coaches,” added Brewer.

The cross country team takes action again on Saturday, September 18th, in Bozeman, MT for the Montana State University Invitational.
