Argos Play Olivet Nazarene To 1-1 Tie

Salt Lake City, UT – The University of Great Falls men’s soccer team met the Olivet Nazarene University Tigers for a neutral site game held on the campus of Westminster College. The hard fought match resulted in a 1-1 draw which is the first of the season for the Argos.

The Argos found the back of the net first when Ryan O’Neil’s breakaway broke the deadlock in the 61st minute. The Tigers answered with a goal of their own 12 minutes later when Seth Arriaga knocked a shot off the post which bounced in.

“I am very proud of our guys tonight,” said Head Coach Paul Zazenski. “We came out hard and had our chances to win the match. Overall, it was a good result against a quality opponent.”

The Argos out-shot the Tigers 10-5 on the afternoon while both teams recorded three shots apiece on goal. Scoring opportunities were hard to come by in the overtime periods as the Argos recorded in the only shot in the additional 20 minutes. Argos’ goalkeeper Zach Johnson stopped two shots during the 110 minute match.

The Argos play again on Saturday, September 4 in Salt Lake City, UT as they face Northwestern College (Iowa). The team then travels to Caldwell, ID to take on the College of Idaho on Monday, September 6.
