Argos Fall to the Lights

Great Falls, MT– The University of Great Falls Volleyball team struggled to overcome an early deficit against highline rival MSU-Northern and lost in three straight sets. The Lights came out with a dominating intensity winning the match 12-25, 19-25, and 13-25.

“We struggled to get going early into game,” said Head Coach Arunas Duda. “We were never able to get comfortable and run our offense due to poor passing and ball control and the result reflected.”

Junior Tosha Nunes (Fallon, NV) led the Argos attack with nine kills. Sophomore Kila Adams (Camas, CA) provided 11 assists and junior Jessika Weber (Idaho Falls, ID) added seven. Junior libero Kyah Decker (Great Falls, MT) led the team defensively recording eight digs followed by junior Kali Schmidt (Whitefish, MT) who contributed seven.

The Argos travel next week to play Westminster College on October 28 and then will head to Lewis-Clark State College on October 30. Game times are set for 7 pm and 1 pm.
