Rocky Mountain Too Much for Argos

Great Falls, MT – The University of Great Falls volleyball team could not keep the momentum going from their upset of Carroll College on Thursday and met a stingy Rocky Mountain side tonight. In what was the last home match of the season for the team and seniors Sam Garven (Zehner, SK) and Sabrina Blajos (Reno, NV), Great Falls fell to the Battlin' Bears in three straight sets (21-25, 15-25, 19-25).

"We could not find a rhythm tonight," said Head Coach Arunas Duda. "We did not pass well and we just seemed out of sync all night. We are going to stress consistency this week in practice as we prepare for the Frontier Conference Tournament next weekend."

Freshman Averi Pasma (Simms, MT) led the Argos attack with nine kills. Tosha Nunes (Fallon, NV) and Jessica Muzzall (Oak Harbor, CA) each added six kills. Junior Jessika Weber (Idaho Falls, ID) had 20 assists on the night. Garven ended with a team high of 10 digs while Great Falls native, Kyah Decker contributed 8 digs.

The Bears showcased a balance attack as six players had five or more kills and were led by Sarah Brunner with nine. Kristin Barrott recorded 31 assists for the Rocky Mountain side which also had nine team blocks.

Great Falls will travel to Lewiston, ID for the Frontier Conference Tournament on November 12-13. Unofficially, the Argos are set to face Carroll College in first round action.
