UGF Volleyball Wins Frontier Conference Opener

Dillon, MT – The University of Great Falls volleyball team opened Frontier Conference play Thursday night by beating the home-standing University of Montana Western in a five-set thriller (25-22, 16-25, 25-23, 13-25, 15-12). The win ups the Argos overall record to 4-9 while Western falls to 1-9.

“Tonight’s match proved that conference play is going to be tough again this year,” said UGF head coach Arunas Duda. “We did not play particularly well but we managed a win. It is good to be back in the win column, especially going into tomorrow’s match.”

The Lady Argos were led defensively by Kali Schmidt (Whitefish, MT) who led the Argos with 13 digs. Freshman Ashley Ferguson contributed 12 digs as well six kills. Seniors Sam Garven (Zeiner, SK) and Sabrina Blajos (Reno, NV) added 10 digs a piece.

Leading the Lady Argo attack was junior Taylor Lucero (Fresno, CA) who had 16 kills and junior Tosha Nunes (Fallon, NV) who came through with 13 kills. Sophomore Jessica Muzall (Oak Harbor, WA) added 10 kills for the Argos. Setters Jessika Weber (Idaho Falls, ID) and Kila Adams (Camas, WA) contributed 32 and 21 assists respectively.

The Lady Argos take on the Orediggers of Montana Tech tomorrow, September 10, at 2 pm in Butte, MT. The Argos will then host the Montana State University-Northern Lights on September 17 at the McLaughlin Center at 7 pm.
