Argos Get Dropped in Three

Great Falls, MT– The University of Great Falls Volleyball team struggled to overcome an early deficit against their conference foes Westminster Griffins and lost in three straight sets. The Argos struggled early on and the Griffins took full advantage and never look back.

The Griffins came out strong and took a two game lead behind the powerful hitting of freshman Clotile Harris. Harris would finish the night with an impressive 16 kills. The Argos found a little momentum in the second game but could not muster enough to match the Griffins dominating attack.

“We struggled to get going early into game,” said Head Coach Arunas Duda. “Harris played big for Westminster tonight and we could not find a way to match them. We are going to move on and prepare for another big game on Saturday.”

Junior Tosha Nunes (Fallon, NV) lead the Argos attack with nine kills. Sophomore Kila Adams (Camas, CA) provided the team with most of the assists recording 15 of the teams 21. Senior libero Sabrina Blajos (Reno, NV) again led the team defensively recording 11 digs followed by senior Sam Garven (Zehner, SK) who contributed eight.

The Argos will take on the top team in the Frontier Conference as 11th ranked Lewis-Clark State College visits on Saturday, September 25 at 2 pm in the McLaughlin Center.
