Frontier Conference Announces 2010-2011 All-Conference Women's Basketball Team

Whitefish, Mont. - Frontier Conference commissioner Kent Paulson announced the 2010-2011 all-conference women's basketball team, as well as individual award winners last night. Taesha Higbee of Montana Tech and Jasmine Stohr of Lewis-Clark State College were named Co-Players of the Year. Callie Kautzmann of Rocky Mountain College was named Newcomer of the Year. Kenna Reiter of Lewis-Clark State College was named Defensive Player of the Year and Sammi Bignell of Montana Western was named Freshman of the Year. Coach of the Year honors went to J.D. Gustin of Westminster College.

Two University of Great Falls student-athletes, junior Kezia Ford and freshman Sarah Sciascia, were named to the second team. Ford, an Augusta, Mont. native, led the Lady Argos in scoring with 388 points, averaging 12.9 a game and grabbed a team-high of 206 rebounds. Hailing from Granite Bay, Calif., Sciascia was second to Ford in points with 332 while shooting 82 percent from the free throw line (73-of-89).

"I am really proud of these two young ladies," said head coach Bill Himmelberg. "They both had a great year and stepped up for us during some crucial times. I look forward to having them both back next season and know they will continue to lead by example as our program grows."
