UGF Women's Basketball Adds Two Cut Bank Student-Athletes

Great Falls, Mont. – The University of Great Falls head women's basketball coach Bill Himmelberg announced the signing of Taylor Harvie and Brady Gray to a Frontier Conference Letter of Intent today. Harvie and Gray, both 5'5" guards, played for former University of Great Falls standout Laura Keaster at Cut Bank High this past year.

"I am really excited that Taylor has chosen to come and play for us at UGF," Himmelberg said. "She will bring additional help for us at the guard position and she really knows how to score and rebound."

"Brady is a great athlete who will add some speed and quickness. She is a great defender and a hard worker. We expect she will add intensity to our team."

"Any time we can get a player from Laura we are excited because she knowledgeable about our university and is a good teacher of the game. Laura had a great career here at UGF," added Himmelberg. "Both Taylor and Brady fit in well with our girls and they are also great students. These attributes make them a perfect fit for us."
