UGF Wrestlers Take Down Northwest; Three Qualify at Jimmie Open

Great Falls, Mont. – The University of Great Falls wrestling team split up its squad for competitions on Saturday. Most of the team that had already qualified for the national tournament stayed at home to wrestle Northwest College of Powell, Wyo. The team, that featured number one ranked wrestlers Ross Mosher and Michael French, defeated the Trappers handily 29-10.

Meanwhile, the rest of Coach Schaeffer's squad travelled to Jamestown, North Dakota to wrestle in the Jimmie Open. Three more wrestlers qualified at the open to bring the team total to 17.

Heavyweight Juan Enriquez and 149 pounder Ryan Leonard won their respective weight classes. Luis Carranza and Scott Schlosser were named co-champions in the 133 pound class.

The Argos will be at home for the last time when they host MSU-Northern on February 9 at the McLaughlin Center. The dual is set to start 7:30 pm and is also Senior Night for Great Falls wrestlers.
