Argo Wrestling Ranked Sixth in Preseason Poll

Kansas City, MO – The NAIA released the Wrestling Coaches' Preseason Poll earlier this week which found the Great Falls' squad ranked sixth in the nation. The defending National Champion Notre Dame (OH) landed the top spot in the Top 20 Poll.

Returning senior All-American and National runner-up Micheal French (Malta, MT) received the top vote for the 184 pound weight class. Great Falls' other returning National runner-up Myles Mazurkiewicz (Havre, MT) nabbed a third place rank at 141 pounds. The sophomore bumped up one weight class following his 2009-2010 campaign. Fellow sophomore Michael Hader (Columbia Falls, MT) garnered a third place rank at 157 pounds and senior All-American Ross Mosher (Augusta, MT) rounded out the Argos top ranks at fourth in the 165 pound weight class.

"We are a very young team and looking to prove that we are still a top team in the nation" stated Head Coach Caleb Schaeffer. "We are going to need some of our underclassmen to perform at a high level. We have great leaders in our senior class so I am intrigued to see how well we do throughout the year."

The Argos will open competition this season on October 30 at home against junior college powerhouse North Idaho College. The dual is set to start at 12 noon in the McLaughlin Center.
