

ADJUNCT FACULTY NEEDED

"The University of Great Falls is accepting applications for adjunct faculty for Spring 2012 for the following courses:

Mathematics- One to three positions available requiring a bachelor degree in mathematics or mathematics education and teaching experience at the secondary or post-secondary level. A master degree is preferred.

- Math 100 Essential Math Skills
- Math 105 Introduction to Algebra
- Math 108 Elementary Statistics
- Math 252 Statistics for the Sciences

Teaching schedules are to be determined, but may include one evening per week.

Biology – instructor is needed for the following course, teaching experience and bachelor's degree in biology or related field required with a Master's degree or higher preferred:

- BIO 103 Structure and Function of the Human Body

English – instructor is needed for the following course, teaching experience and bachelor's degree in English or related field required with a Master's degree preferred. Background in science desired:

- ENG 313 – Writing for the Sciences

RN to BSN program-the program is fully accredited and is delivered using synchronous and asynchronous distance learning modalities. We are looking for energetic and enthusiastic instructors who would like to join our team. Masters is required (with a Bachelors or Masters in the field of nursing and minimum of 2 years clinical nursing experience).

Please refer to our website: www.ugf.edu Academics, Registrar, Catalog, Undergraduate Catalog Course Descriptions for course descriptions and rotations.

Send Letter of Interest, Resume/CV detailing professional experience/education to Rev. Jim Sikora, Academic Dean at facultyapplication@ugf.edu.